

I am strongly concerned with lifting the cross-ownership ban on media organizations, and feel the lax in regulatory clauses allow further media consolidation will not serve the public interest. Now, corporate giants, specifically those who I will not name, who have already established laughable and biased news sources, will be able to spread their hidden agendas and corrupt the minds of news-thirsty Americans with their mediocre reporting and propaganda. Thank you,
-ahmad maaty